EXTRAORDINARY

GOVERNMENT OF GOA, DAMAN AND DIU

To,

The Public Generally,

Whereas it has been reported to me that following a dispute between rival political parties in the Goa, Daman and Diu Legislative Assembly elections in the constituency of Mormugao, there has been widespread rioting in the said area.

And whereas I am satisfied that there are sufficient grounds for proceeding under section 144 Cr. P. C. and that immediate preventive action is desirable for the maintenance of the public tranquility.

Now, therefore, I, Jagdish Sagar, District Magistrate of Goa, in exercise of the powers vested in me under section 144 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, do hereby prohibit in any public road, throughfare or any open space within the limits of the Taluka of Mormugao.

The gathering or assembly of five or more persons.

The taking out of procession.

The carrying out of any weapons including firearms knives, lathis etc. and the shouting of slogans.

As the circumstances do not admit of individual service, this order is addressed to the public generally. It shall come into force immediately and shall remain in force until further orders.

This order shall not apply to bonafide religious, marriage or funeral processions or to any procession for which prior permission has been obtained from the Sub-Divisional Police Officer, Mormugao, or to Government servants on duty.

Given under my hand and the seal of the Court, this eleventh day of March, 1972.

Jagdish Sagar, District Magistrate.

In the Court of the District Magistrate of Goa, Panaji

Order

To

The Public Generally,

Whereas it has been reported to me that, following a dispute between different political parties in connection with the Goa,

Daman and Diu Legislative Assembly Election, there has been continuous and widespread rioting and arson in Municipal area of Marmagao since the afternoon of the eleventh March.

And whereas it has been reported to me that small groups of persons have been moving about in the said Municipal area with the object of committing offences and disturbing the peace.

And whereas I am satisfied that there are sufficient grounds for proceeding under Section 144 of the Criminal Procedure Code, and that immediate prevention and speedy remedy by imposition of curfew are desirable for the maintenance of the public peace and tranquility.

Now, therefore, I, Jagdish Sagar, District Magistrate of Goa, in exercise of the powers vested in me under Section 144 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, do hereby direct that no person shall enter or move about, whether singly or in the company of others and whether on foot or in any vehicles, in any public place, road, street or through within the limits of the Municipal area of Marmagao between the hours of 7.00 p. m. and 6.00 a. m.

As the circumstances do not admit of individual service, this order is pronounced ex parte and is addressed to the public generally. It shall come into force from to-day and shall remain in force for a period of three days unless withdrawn earlier.

This order shall not apply to Government or Municipal servants or regular salaries employees of the Mormugao Port Trust on duty, to person bonafide going or accompanying others to any hospital or other place for medical treatment, to medical practitioners and persons assisting them moving bonafide for the purpose of rendering medical assistance to any person, or to any person with permission in writing from a Magistrate or a Police Officer of the rank of Deputy Superintendent of Police.

Given under my hand and the seal of the Court this twelfth day of March, 1972.

Jagdish Sagar,

District Magistrate of Goa.
